Making Choices: Learning to do the right thing is a lifelong task. Because children are newcomers on the path of social, moral, and spiritual development, they need caring guides to help them along the way. In Making Good Choices: A Book About Right and Wrong Just for Me!, author Lisa O. Engelhardt helps children learn from their everyday choice and experiences to give them the skills and perspectives necessary to become compassionate, caring, and responsible adults. (for Ages 4-7) $9.45 including HST

How To Be A Friend : Those long summer days and weekends spent with our best friends can be among the happiest memories of childhood. In How To Be A Friend: A Book About Friendship ... Just for Me!, author, Molly Wigand, introduces children to those values that make for good friendships-loyalty, trust, and honesty-and to how they can become a good friend to others. $9.45 including HST

LOYOLA KIDS BOOK OF HEROES—In this book of saints for kids, best-selling author Amy Welborn tells the stories of devoted Christians, including Mother Teresa, Dorothy Day, and John the Baptist, who made significant contributions to people and the world around them. Throughout "Loyola Kids Book of Heroes," Welborn introduces Christian role models who exemplify the seven cardinal virtues--faith, hope, charity, temperance, prudence, fortitude, and justice--and helps children grow in their love and admiration for the saints. Colorful illustrations and a delightful storytelling style bring to life these stories of saints for kids.
